EXPERIENCE

Daniel Geraldson is a Building Consultant at RMC Group with experience as both a Property Claims Adjuster and Real Estate Broker. He has served in several states to perform property loss inspections, develop loss scope estimates, organize case files, provide contractor oversight, offer dispute resolution services, and settle claims accurately. With great attention to detail, Daniel investigates and composites all loss photos, videos, Pictometry, and reports to create structured case files. With detailed case insight, he is capable of delivering excellent service with professional representation for a prompt resolution to concerns of the insurer or insureds.

As an expert in his field, Daniel continually reviews the stakes throughout disposition strategy development, project management, and claim settlement processes. He has managed and provided direct oversight on large losses to ensure the cooperation of efforts between adjusters, contractors, personnel, and third-party resources for efficiency. Daniel's ability to seamlessly analyze, compile, and oversee loss variables and tasks makes for faster, more accurate results.
